

1. b. Current patterns of international migration are related to global patterns of socio-economic development Page 221-223

Relationship between patterns in international migration and socio-economic development:

How global migration can promote stability, growth and development within countries through flows of people, money ideas and technology:

Stability:

Economic growth:

How global migration causes inequalities, conflicts and injustices for people and places though unequal flows of people, money, ideas of technology:

Development:

Inequalities:

Conflict:

Injustices: